PARTIES

5. Whenever reference is made to any defendant entity, such reference includes that entity, its parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, and successors. In addition, whenever reference is made to any act, deed, or transaction of any entity, the allegation means that the entity engaged in the act, deed, or transaction by or through its officers, directors, agents employees, or representatives while they were actively engaged in the management, direction, control, or transaction of the entity's business affairs.

8. At all times material to the Verified Complaint, the Church was and remains authorized to conduct business under the laws of the State of New York.

9. At all times material to the Verified Complaint, the Church's principal place of business is 149 East 3rd Street, Mount Vernon, NY 10550.

10. The Church oversees a variety of liturgical, sacramental, educational and faith formation programs.

11. The Church has various programs that seek out the participation of children in its activities.

12. The Church, through its agents, servants, and/or employees has control over those activities involving children.

13. The Church has the power to employ individuals working with and/or alongside children, providing said children with guidance and/or instruction under the auspices of the Church, including but not limited to those at the Church.

14. At all times material to the Verified Complaint, Bishop John Morehead ("Bishop Morehead") was an agent, servant, and/or employee of the Church.

15. At all times material to the Verified Complaint, while an agent, servant and/or employee of the Church, Bishop Morehead remained under the control and supervision of the Church.

16. The Church placed Bishop Morehead in positions where he had immediate access to children.

FACTS

17. Plaintiff was raised in a devoutly religious family and, in or around 1977, when Plaintiff was approximately fourteen (14) years old, Plaintiff began attending the Church.

18. At all relevant times, Plaintiff participated in youth activities and church activities at the Church.

19. The Plaintiff received educational and religious instruction from the Church.

20. Bishop Morehead, under the auspices of the Church, provided educational and religious instruction to the infant Plaintiff.

21. During and through these educational and religious instructional activities activities, Plaintiff, as a minor and vulnerable child, was dependent on the Church and Bishop Morehead.

22. During and through these educational and religious instructional activities, the Church had custody of Plaintiff and accepted the entrustment of Plaintiff.

23. During and through these religious and instructional activities, the Church had assumed the responsibility of caring for Plaintiff and had authority over him.

24. Through Bishop Morehead's positions at, within, or for the Church, Bishop Morehead was put in direct contact with Plaintiff, a member of the Church. It was under these circumstances that Plaintiff came to be under the direction, contact, and control of Bishop Morehead, who used his position of authority and trust over Plaintiff to sexually abuse and harass Plaintiff.

25. On repeated occasions, while Plaintiff was a minor, Bishop Morehead, while acting as a priest, counselor, teacher, trustee, director, officer, employee, agent, servant and/or volunteer of the Church, sexually assaulted, sexually abused and/or had sexual contact with Plaintiff in violation of the laws of the State of New York, including the New York State Penal Law.

26. The abuse occurred from approximately in or about 1978 to 1980.

27. Plaintiff's relationship to the Church, as a vulnerable minor, parishioner and participant in Church educational and religious instructional activities, was one in which Plaintiff was subject to the Church's ongoing influence. The dominating culture of the Church over Plaintiff pressured Plaintiff not to report Bishop Morehead's sexual abuse of him.

28. At no time did the Church ever send an official, a member of the clergy, an investigator or any employee or independent contractor to the Church to advise or provide any form of notice to the parishioners either verbally or in writing that there were credible allegations against Bishop Morehead and to request that anyone who saw, suspected or suffered sexual abuse to come forward and file a report with the police department. Rather, the Church remained silent.

29. At all times material hereto, Bishop Morehead was under the direct supervision, employ and/or control of the Church.

30. The Church knew and/or reasonably should have known, and/or knowingly condoned, and/or covered up, the inappropriate and unlawful sexual activities of Bishop Morehead who sexually abused Plaintiff.

31. The Church negligently or recklessly believed that Bishop Morehead was fit to work with children and/or that any previous problems he had were fixed and cured; that Bishop Morehead would not sexually molest children; and that Bishop Morehead would not injure children.

32. The Church had the responsibility to supervise and/or direct priests serving at the Church, and specifically, had a duty not to aid a pedophile such as Bishop Morehead, by assigning, maintaining and/or appointing him to a position with access to minors.

33. By holding Bishop Morehead out as safe to work with children, and by undertaking the custody, supervision of, and/or care of the minor Plaintiff, the Church entered into a fiduciary relationship with the minor Plaintiff. As a result of Plaintiff's being a minor, and by the Church undertaking the care and guidance of the vulnerable minor Plaintiff, the Church held a position of empowerment over Plaintiff.

34. The Church, by holding itself out as being able to provide a safe environment for children, solicited and/or accepted this position of empowerment. This empowerment prevented the then minor Plaintiff from effectively protecting himself. The Church thus entered into a fiduciary relationship with Plaintiff.

35. The Church had a special relationship with Plaintiff.

36. The Church owed Plaintiff a duty of reasonable care because the Church had superior knowledge about the risk that Bishop Morehead posed to Plaintiff, the risk of abuse in general in its programs, and/or the risks that its facilities posed to minor children.

37. The Church owed Plaintiff a duty of reasonable care because it solicited youth and parents for participation in its youth programs; encouraged youth and parents to have the youth participate in its programs; undertook custody of minor children, including Plaintiff; promoted its facilities and programs as being safe for children; held its agents including Bishop Morehead out as safe to work with children; encouraged parents and children to spend time with its agents; and/or encouraged its agents, including Bishop Morehead, to spend time with, interact with, and recruit children.

38. The Church owed Plaintiff a duty to protect Plaintiff from harm because the Church's actions created a foreseeable risk of harm to Plaintiff.

39. The Church's breach of its duties include, but are not limited to: failure to have sufficient policies and procedures to prevent child sexual abuse, failure to properly implement the policies and procedures to prevent child sexual abuse, failure to take reasonable measures to make sure that the policies and procedures to prevent child sexual abuse were working, failure to adequately inform families and children of the risks of child sexual abuse, failure to investigate risks of child sexual abuse, failure to properly train the workers at institutions and programs within the Church, geographical confines, failure to protect children in its programs from child sexual abuse, failure to adhere to the applicable standard of care for child safety, failure to investigate the amount and type of information necessary to represent the institutions, programs, leaders and people as safe, failure to train its employees properly to identify signs of child molestation by fellow employees, failure by relying on mental health professionals, and/or failure by relying on people who claimed that they could treat child molesters.

40. The Church also breached its duties to Plaintiff by failing to warn Plaintiff and Plaintiff's family of the risk that Bishop Morehead posed and the risks of child sexual abuse by clerics.

41. The Church also failed to warn Plaintiff and Plaintiff's family about any of the knowledge that it had about child sexual abuse.

42. The Church also violated a legal duty by failing to report known and/or suspected abuse of children by Bishop Morehead and/or its other agents to the police and law enforcement.

43. By employing Bishop Morehead at the Church, the Church through its agents, affirmatively represented to minor children and their families that Bishop Morehead did not pose a threat to children, did not have a history of molesting children, that the Church did not know that Bishop Morehead had a history of molesting children, and that the Church did not know that Bishop Morehead was a danger to children.

44. The Church induced Plaintiff and Plaintiff's family to rely on these representations, and they did rely on them.

45. The Church has never publicly admitted the veracity of the allegations against Bishop Morehead, warned the public and/or conducted outreach to potential victims of his sexual abuse. The pattern and practice of intentionally failing to disclose the identities and locations of sexually inappropriate and/or abusive clerics has been practiced by the Church for decades and continues through current day. The failure to disclose the identities of allegedly sexually inappropriate and/or abusive clerics is unreasonable and knowingly or recklessly creates or maintains a condition which endangers the safety or health of a considerable number of members of the public, including Plaintiff.

46. By allowing Bishop Morehead to remain in active ministry, the Church, through its agents, has made and continues to make affirmative representations to minor children and their families, including Plaintiff and Plaintiff's family, that Bishop Morehead does not pose a threat to children, does not have a history of molesting children, that the Church does not know that Bishop Morehead has a history of molesting children and that the Church does not know that Bishop Morehead is a danger to children.

47. The Church ignored credible complaints about the sexually abusive behaviors of priests.

48. The Church failed to act on obvious warning signs of sexual abuse, including instances where it was aware that priests had children in its private rooms in the rectory overnight, that priests were drinking alcohol with underage children and exposing them to pornography.

49. Even where a priest disclosed sexually abusive behavior with children, the Church officials failed to act to remove him from ministry.

50. The Church engaged in conduct that resulted in the prevention, hinderance and delay in the discovery of criminal conduct by priests.

51. The Church conceived and agreed to a plan using deception and intimidation to prevent victims from seeking legal solutions to their problems.

52. As a result of Defendant's conduct described herein, Plaintiff has and will continue to suffer personal physical and psychological injuries, including but not limited to great pain of mind and body, severe and permanent emotional distress, physical manifestations of emotional distress, problems sleeping, concentrating, low self-confidence, low self-respect, low self-esteem, feeling of worthlessness, feeling shameful, and embarrassed, feeling alone and isolated, losing faith in God, losing faith in authority figures, feeling estranged from the church, struggling with alcohol and substance problems, struggling with gainful employment and career advancement, feeling helpless, and hopeless, problems with sexual intimacy, relationship problems, trust issues, feeling confused and angry, depression, anxiety, feeling dirty, used, and damaged, suicidal ideations, having traumatic flashbacks, feeling that his childhood and innocence was stolen. Plaintiff was prevented and will continue to be prevented from performing Plaintiff's normal daily activities; has incurred and will continue to incur expenses for medical and psychological treatment, therapy, and counseling; and, on information and belief, has incurred and will continue to incur loss of income and/or loss of earning capacity. As a victim of Defendant's misconduct, Plaintiff is unable at this time to fully describe all the details of that abuse and the extent of the harm Plaintiff suffered as a result.

53. The Church violated various New York statutes, including, but not limited to N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law §§ 413 and 420, which require, inter alia, school officials, teachers, day care center workers, providers of family or group family day care, and any other child care worker to report suspected cases of child abuse and impose liability for failure to report.

54. The injuries and damages suffered by Plaintiff are specific in kind to Plaintiff, special, peculiar, and above and beyond those injuries and damages suffered by the public.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: NEGLIGENCE

55. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

56. The Church knew or was negligent in not knowing that Bishop Morehead posed a threat of sexual abuse to children.

57. The acts of Bishop Morehead described hereinabove were undertaken, and/or enabled by, and/or during the course, and/or within the scope of his employment, appointment, and/or agency with the Church.

58. The Church owed Plaintiff a duty to protect Plaintiff from Bishop Morehead's sexual deviancy, both prior to and/or subsequent to Bishop Morehead's misconduct.

59. The Church's willful, wanton, grossly negligent and/or negligent act(s) of commission and/or omission, resulted directly and/or proximately in the damages set forth herein at length.

60. At all times material hereto, with regard to the allegations contained herein, Bishop Morehead was under the direct supervision, employ and/or control of the Church.

61. At all times material hereto, the Church's actions were willful, wanton, malicious, reckless, grossly negligent and outrageous in its disregard for the rights and safety of Plaintiff.

62. As a direct and/or indirect result of said conduct, Plaintiff has suffered the injuries and damages described herein.

63. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for compensatory damages, and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION: NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, SUPERVISION, AND/OR DIRECTION

64. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

65. The Church hired Bishop Morehead.

66. The Church hired Bishop Morehead for a position that required him to work closely with, mentor, and counsel young boys and girls.

67. The Church was negligent in hiring Bishop Morehead because it knew or should have known, through the exercise of reasonable care, of Bishop Morehead's propensity to develop inappropriate relationships with children in its charge and to engage in sexual behavior and lewd and lascivious conduct with such children.

68. Bishop Morehead would not and could not have been in a position to sexually abuse Plaintiff had he not been hired by the Church to mentor and counsel children in the Church.

69. Bishop Morehead continued to molest Plaintiff while at the Church.

70. Bishop Morehead would not and could not have been in a position to sexually abuse Plaintiff had he not been hired by the Church to mentor and counsel children in the Church.

71. The harm complained of herein was foreseeable.

72. Plaintiff would not have suffered the foreseeable harm complained of herein but for the negligence of the Church in having placed Bishop Morehead, and/or allowed Bishop Morehead to remain in his position.

73. At all times while Bishop Morehead was employed or appointed by the Church, he was supervised by the Church and/or its agents and employees.

74. At all times while Bishop Morehead was employed or appointed by the Church, he was under the direction of, and/or answerable to, the Church and/or its agents and employees.

75. The Church was negligent in its direction and/or supervision of Bishop Morehead in that it knew or should have known, through the exercise of ordinary care, that Bishop Morehead's conduct would subject third parties to an unreasonable risk of harm, including Bishop Morehead's propensity to develop inappropriate relationships with children under his charge and to engage in sexual behavior and lewd and lascivious conduct with such children.

76. The Church failed to take steps to prevent such conduct from occurring.

77. The Church was negligent in its retention of Bishop Morehead in that that it knew, or should have known, through the exercise of reasonable care, of his propensity to develop inappropriate relationships with children under his charge and to engage in sexual behavior and lewd and lascivious conduct with such children.

78. The Church retained Bishop Morehead in his position as mentor and counselor to such children and thus left him in a position to continue such behavior.

79. The Church was further negligent in its retention, supervision, and/or direction of Bishop Morehead in that Bishop Morehead sexually molested Plaintiff on the premises of the Church.

80. The Church failed to take reasonable steps to prevent such events from occurring on its premises.

81. Bishop Morehead would not and could not have been in a position to sexually abuse Plaintiff had he not been negligently retained, supervised, and/or directed by the Church as a mentor and counselor to the infant parishioners of the Church, including Plaintiff.

82. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for compensatory damages, and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION: BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

83. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

84. Through the position to which Bishop Morehead was assigned by the Church, Bishop Morehead was placed in direct contact with Plaintiff.

85. Bishop Morehead was assigned as a priest at the Church, including as a teacher assigned to teach Plaintiff.

86. It was under these circumstances that Plaintiff was entrusted to the care of the Church and - under its authority - came to be under the direction, control and dominance of, Bishop Morehead.

87. As a result, Bishop Morehead used his position to sexually abuse and harass Plaintiff.

88. There existed a fiduciary relationship of trust, confidence, and reliance between Plaintiff and the Church.

89. Pursuant to its fiduciary relationship, the Church was entrusted with the well-being, care, and safety of Plaintiff.

90. Pursuant to its fiduciary relationship, the Church assumed a duty to act in the best interests of Plaintiff.

91. The Church breached its fiduciary duties to Plaintiff.

92. At all times material hereto, the Church's actions and/or inactions were willful, wanton, malicious, reckless, grossly negligent and/or outrageous in its disregard for the rights and safety of Plaintiff.

93. As a direct result of said conduct, Plaintiff has suffered the injuries and damages described herein.

94. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for compensatory damages, and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION: BREACH OF NON-DELEGABLE DUTY

95. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

96. Plaintiff, when a minor, was placed in the care of the Church for the purposes of, inter alia, providing Plaintiff with a safe environment to receive an education.

97. As a result, there existed a non-delegable duty of trust between Plaintiff and the Church.

98. Plaintiff was a vulnerable child when placed within the care of the Church.

99. Consequently, the Church was in the best position to prevent Plaintiff's abuse, and to learn of Bishop Morehead's repeated sexual abuse of Plaintiff and stop it.

100. By virtue of the fact that Plaintiff was sexually abused as a minor student entrusted to the care of the Church, the Church breached its non-delegable duty to Plaintiff.

101. At all times material hereto, Bishop Morehead was under the direct supervision, employ and/or control of the Church.

102. As a direct result of said conduct, Plaintiff has suffered the injuries and damages described herein.

103. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for compensatory damages, and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION: BREACH OF DUTY IN LOCO PARENTIS

104. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

105. Plaintiff was a minor when his parents entrusted him to the control of the Church for the purpose of, inter alia, providing Plaintiff with an education.

106. The Church owed a duty to adequately supervise its students to prevent foreseeable harms and injuries.

107. As a result, the Church owed a duty to Plaintiff in loco parentis.

108. The Church breached its duty in loco parentis.

109. At all times material hereto, the Church's actions were willful, wanton, malicious, reckless, negligent, grossly negligent and/or outrageous in its disregard for the rights and safety of Plaintiff.

110. As a direct result of the Church's conduct, Plaintiff has suffered the injuries and damages described herein.

111. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for compensatory damages, and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION: INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

112. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

113. At the time Bishop Morehead molested Plaintiff, which Bishop Morehead knew would cause, or disregarded the substantial probability that it would cause, severe emotional distress, the Church employed Bishop Morehead as Plaintiff's mentor and counselor.

114. It was part of Bishop Morehead's job as role model and mentor to gain Plaintiff's trust. Bishop Morehead used his position, and the representations made by the Church about his character that accompanied that position, to gain Plaintiff's trust and confidence and to create opportunities to violate Plaintiff.

115. The Church knew and/or disregarded the substantial probability that Bishop Morehead's conduct would cause severe emotional distress to Plaintiff.

116. Plaintiff suffered severe emotional distress, including psychological and emotional injury as described above.

117. This distress was caused by Bishop Morehead's sexual abuse of Plaintiff.

118. The sexual abuse of Plaintiff was extreme and outrageous conduct, beyond all possible bounds of decency, atrocious and intolerable in a civilized community.

119. The Church is liable for Bishop Morehead's conduct under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

120. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for compensatory damages, and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION: NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

121. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

122. As set forth at length herein, the actions of the Church, its predecessors and/or successors, agents, servants and/or employees, were conducted in a negligent and/or grossly negligent manner.

123. The Church's actions endangered Plaintiff's safety and caused him to fear for his own safety.

124. As a direct and proximate result of the Church's actions, which included but were not limited to, negligent and/or grossly negligent conduct, Plaintiff suffered the severe injuries and damages described herein, including but not limited to, mental and emotional distress.

125. In addition to its own direct liability for negligently inflicting emotional distress on Plaintiff, the Church is also liable for Bishop Morehead's negligent infliction of emotional distress under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

126. At the time Bishop Morehead breached his duty to Plaintiff, Bishop Morehead was employed as Plaintiff's mentor and counselor by the Church.

127. It was part of Bishop Morehead's job as role model and mentor to gain Plaintiff's trust. Bishop Morehead used his position, and the representations made by the Church about his character that accompanied that position, to gain Plaintiff's trust and confidence and to create opportunities to be alone with, and touch, Plaintiff.

128. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for compensatory damages, and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION: BREACH OF STATUTORY DUTY TO REPORT
ABUSE UNDER SOC. SERV. LAW §§ 413 and 420

129. Plaintiff repeats and realleges by reference each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

130. Pursuant to N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law §§ 413 and 420, the Church, including but not limited to its teachers, administrators, and other school personnel, had a statutorily imposed duty to report reasonable suspicion of abuse of children in its care.

131. The Church breached that duty by knowingly and willfully failing to report reasonable suspicion of abuse by Bishop Morehead of children in its care.

132. As a direct and/or indirect result of said conduct, Plaintiff has suffered injuries and damages described herein.

133. By reason of the foregoing, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for compensatory damages, and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.

134. The limitations of liability set forth in Article 16 of the CPLR do not apply to the causes of action alleged herein.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that the Court grant judgment in this action in favor of the Plaintiff, and against the Defendant, in a sum of money in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction, together with all applicable interest, costs, disbursements, as well as punitive damages and such other, further and different relief as the Court in its discretion shall deem to be just, proper and equitable.

Plaintiff further places Defendant on notice and reserves the right to interpose claims sounding in Fraudulent Concealment, Deceptive Practices and/or Civil Conspiracy should the facts and discovery materials support such claims.
